Professional Scrum™ Certifications | Scrum.org

1 VISIT THE SCRUM.ORG WEBSITE:

Go to the official website of Scrum.org (Home | Scrum.org), the organization that offers the PSM I certification. You can find it by searching for "Scrum.org" in your preferred search engine.

2 EXPLORE CERTIFICATION OPTIONS:

Once on the website, explore the certification options available. Locate the PSM I certification among the offerings. Ensure that PSM I is the certification you want to pursue, as Scrum.org offers various other certifications related to Scrum.

3 REVIEW PREREQUISITES AND STUDY MATERIALS:

Before registering for the exam, review the prerequisites for the PSM I certification. Typically, there are no mandatory prerequisites, but it's recommended to have some knowledge or experience with Scrum. Also, familiarize yourself with the recommended study materials provided on the website.

4 CREATE AN ACCOUNT:

To register for the PSM I exam, you'll need to create an account on the Scrum.org website. Look for the "Sign Up" or "Create Account" option and provide the required information, such as your name, email address, and a password.

5 SELECT EXAM:

After creating an account and logging in, navigate to the PSM I certification page. Look for the option to register for the exam. Click on it to proceed. (Professional Scrum Master™ I Certification | Scrum.org)

6 CHOOSE EXAM DELIVERY METHOD:

Decide whether you want to take the exam online or at a physical testing center. Scrum.org offers both options, so select the one that best suits your preferences and availability.

7 SCHEDULE EXAM DATE AND TIME:

If you choose to take the exam at a physical testing center, you'll need to select a date and time for your exam. Follow the prompts to find available slots and schedule your exam accordingly.

8 PAY EXAM FEE $200:

There is usually a fee associated with taking the PSM I exam. Make sure to review the fee structure on the website and proceed with payment. You'll likely be asked to provide your payment details during the registration process.
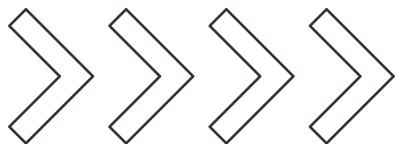

9 TAKE THE EXAM:

On the scheduled date and time, either log in to the online exam platform or arrive at the physical testing center to take the exam. Follow the instructions provided to complete the exam within the allotted time.

10 RECEIVE RESULTS:

After completing the exam, you'll receive your results immediately if you took the online exam. If you took the exam at a physical testing center, you'll likely receive your results via email within a few days.

That's it! Follow these steps, and you'll successfully register for and obtain your PSM I certification. Good luck with your exam!
